Applying more than five years of experience, Gokul provides businesses with tailored investment banking solutions to maximize transactional outcomes.

Gokul began his career with the investment bank's affiliate CPA firm, working in the strategic advisory group providing mergers and acquisition advisory, business valuation and management consulting services. In his role today, he uses this experience to advise and guide companies through the complex dynamics of mergers and acquisitions, sell-side and buy-side processes, divestitures and capital raising.

A licensed investment banker, Gokul is instrumental in helping his clients navigate transactions from start to finish by assisting them to build business value, develop growth and exit strategies, run private-limited auctions and negotiate deals to their benefit.
